

Attracting Money

New course

Can you learn to attract money? Deborah Bromley, who will be leading this 1 day course, believes that you can. She has previously run workshops for the public and says that they were probably “one of the most enjoyable and life changing things” she has done, not only for herself but for those attending.

On this course, you will learn how you can change your whole outlook, mentally, emotionally and more importantly at an energetic level to make money flow into your life.

The day is designed for personal development but also to help you help your clients. You will learn how you can begin the changes necessary to make money an asset rather than a “worry”. Hypnosis, guided imagery, regression, progression and EFT will all be used to assist the process.

Each participant will be given a CD to take home to enable them to continue the process of magnetising those things that they want into their lives.

Come and join this “brand new” course and see what happens!
